

American Politics

The University of Michigan's Department of Political Science invites applications from outstanding candidates for a tenure track position in the field of American Politics to begin September 1, 2008. Level of appointment is open, though we are especially interested in candidates at the assistant professor rank. For a tenured position, a record of demonstrated excellence and accomplishment in research and teaching is required. For a non-tenured position, promise of excellence in research and teaching is required. Applications received by October 1, 2007 will be given first consideration, although we will accept applications after that date. Applicants should submit a letter of interest that describes their research and training, curriculum vitae, writing samples, research statement, teaching statement, teaching evaluations, and for entry-level candidates please include three letters of recommendation and graduate transcripts to: Chair, American Politics Search Committee, Department of Political Science, University of Michigan, 5700 Haven Hall, 505 S. State Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-1045.

The University of Michigan is an AA/EO employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. The University is supportive of the needs of dual career couples.
